

ALBUKHARY INTERNATIONAL UNIVERSITY

"inspiring minds" 1 August, 2025

July 2025

MONTHLY EVENT HIGHLIGHTS:

Celebrating AIU's Community Success

Vice Chancellor's Office
Albukhary International University

Malaysia's Leadership in Peacemaking Recognised at AICHR Thematic Study Launch

2 - 3 July 2025 | Courtyard by Marriott Kuala Lumpur South

The ASEAN Intergovernmental Commission on Human Rights (AICHR) launched the Thematic Study on the Right to Peace, alongside the Regional Training Programme on Human Rights, gathering academics, ASEAN representatives, and civil society actors to discuss peacebuilding in Southeast Asia. Representing Albukhary International University (AIU), Assoc. Prof. Dr. Ayesah Uy Abubakar highlighted Malaysia's role in facilitating the Philippine peace process with the Moro Islamic Liberation Front (MILF), its peace education initiatives, and the vital contribution of civil society to sustaining peace across the region.

Organised by: ASEAN Intergovernmental Commission on Human Rights (AICHR)

AIU Contributes to Regional Research on Forced Displacement Issues in Southeast Asia

6 July 2025 | Chiang Mai, Thailand

Afifi Nordin, Lecturer of Politics and International Relations at Albukhary International University (AIU), participated in the "Researching Forced Displacement Issues in Southeast Asia" workshop organized by Chiang Mai University's Regional Center for Social Science and Sustainable Development (RCSD). Selected as the sole Malaysian among participants from across ASEAN, Afifi engaged in scholarly discussions, comparative case analyses, and methodological training on topics such as conflict- and climate-driven displacement, humanitarian responses, and policy frameworks, contributing a paper proposal on Malaysia's governance of forced migration for RCSD's forthcoming edited volume.

Organised by: Chiang Mai University's Regional Center for Social Science and Sustainable Development (RCSD).

Centre for Graduate Studies Marks Milestone with Inaugural AIU Postgraduate Colloquium

7 - 8 July 2025 | AIU

The Centre for Graduate Studies, Albukhary International University (AIU) successfully hosted its 1st AIU Postgraduate Colloquium on 7-8 July 2025, bringing together postgraduate students, academic experts, and researchers for two days of scholarly exchange. The event featured an opening address by Centre Director Prof. Dr. Yusnidah Ibrahim, a keynote on bibliometric analysis by Assoc. Prof. Dr. Aidi Ahmi (UUM), and parallel research presentation sessions across four tracks, evaluated by distinguished reviewers. The colloquium showcased the dedication and professionalism of AIU's postgraduate community, reinforcing the university's commitment to academic excellence and impactful research.

Organised by: Centre for Graduate Studies

AIU Lecturer Shares Insights at Business Research Colloquium 2025

12 July 2025 | Universiti Selangor (UNISEL)

Amirul Syafiq Bin Mohd Ghazali, Lecturer at the School of Business and Social Sciences (SBSS), Albukhary International University (AIU), was invited as a panelist at the Business Research Colloquium 2025 hosted by Universiti Selangor (UNISEL). The event gathered over 170 students, 30+ supervisors, and 39 research groups addressing real-world business challenges, fostering research, critical thinking, and communication skills. Mr. Amirul shared valuable perspectives on research impact, innovation, and bridging the gap between academic ideas and practical application.

Organised by: Universiti Selangor (UNISEL)

AIU Students Represent Myanmar at RISEAP Women's Leadership Training 2025 in Indonesia

11 - 15 July 2025 | Padang, Indonesia

Albukhary International University (AIU) students Linn Shelly Maw and Khin Myat Noe represented Myanmar under the International Institute of Islamic Thought (IIIT) Myanmar at the 2025 RISEAP Women's Leadership Training in Padang, Indonesia. The five-day programme, themed "Empowering Muslim Women to Lead Sustainable Change," brought together emerging leaders from 12 Asia-Pacific countries for workshops, keynotes, and cultural exchanges on Islamic ethics, sustainability, and community leadership. Distinguished guests included Malaysian and regional leaders, with the training led by RISEAP Women's Wing Chairperson Hajjah Rahayu Mohamad and Secretary Sister Zubeda Raihman.

Organised by: Regional Islamic Da'wah Council of Southeast Asia and the Pacific (RISEAP)

AIU Supports KSAH in Toyota Eco Youth Challenge 2025

19 July 2025 | Alor Setar, Kedah

Albukhary International University (AIU) joined forces with Kolej Sultan Abdul Hamid (KSAH), Kedah's representative in the Toyota Eco Youth Challenge 2025, to launch the "Eco Green Initiative", a project to transform an illegal dumping ground into a community space promoting environmental conservation. Four students from the School of Computing and Informatics (SCI), together with Dean Assoc. Prof. Dr. Basheer Riskhan, dedicated their efforts to the 8-hour challenge, working to turn the vision of environmental renewal into a tangible reality.

Organised by: Kolej Sultan Abdul Hamid

SEHS Hosts Asian Teacher Educators for Climate Change Education Workshop in Collaboration with Okayama University

21 - 23 July 2025 | AIU

The School of Education and Human Sciences (SEHS), Albukhary International University (AIU), in collaboration with Okayama University, Japan, hosted the three-day Workshop on Asian Teacher Educators for Climate Change Education (ATECCE) from 21–23 July 2025. The programme brought together international experts, local educators, and AIU pre-service teachers to explore strategies for integrating sustainability and climate change awareness into teaching. Featuring contributions from UNESCO Chair Prof. Hiroki Fujii, Dr. Khalifatullah Fil'ard, Assoc. Prof. Dr. Rabiatul Adawiah and Bro Muhaideen Abdul Kadir, the workshop equipped participants with knowledge, tools, and collaborative opportunities to advance climate-conscious education across Asia.

Organised by: School of Education and Human Sciences (SEHS), AIU, in collaboration with Okayama University, Japan

AAIU Advances Data-Literate Culture with Targeted Analytics Workshop

23 - 25 July 2025 | Wakaf Computer Lab, AIU

Albukhary International University (AIU), through its Centre for Development of Academic Excellence (CDAE), conducted a three-day workshop on “Data Analysis for Teaching and Data-Driven Decision Making Using Excel and Power BI” to strengthen data capabilities among academic and administrative staff. Facilitated by Dr. Noor Farizah Ibrahim and Dr. Noratikah Nordin (Universiti Sains Malaysia) alongside Prof. Dr. Zurinahni Zainol (AIU), the sessions focused on practical, real-time problem solving with institutional data, covering data management and dashboard visualisation to support evidence-informed decision-making across the university.

Organised by: Centre for Development of Academic Excellence (CDAE)

AIU Language Centre Empowers Local Students through 'English Alive!'

29 July 2025 | AIU

The Language Centre of Albukhary International University (AIU) hosted English Alive!, a one-day English support programme for 79 Form 5 students from Maktab Mahmud Pokok Sena, designed to boost spoken English skills ahead of the SPM examination. Led by 33 AIU student facilitators, the event featured collaborative learning, speaking practice, cultural sharing, and the lively “English Gameporium” with 15 themed stations to enhance vocabulary and confidence. The initiative not only strengthened participants’ communication skills but also provided AIU students with valuable leadership and mentorship experience.

Organised by: Language Centre

MONTHLY EVENT HIGHLIGHTS

Vice Chancellor's Office
Albukhary International University